Retreat

The wide selection of spiritual books at the retreat house provides excellent meditation matter.

For the 4th consecutive year, the facilities of Spokane's Immaculate Heart Retreat House were made available to seniors who were interested in making a closed retreat. The location of the house, just south of the city on Moran prairie, offers an ideal situation for thinking ones life over and preparing for the future.

In the chapel at Immaculate Heart Retreat House 51 seniors receive the expert spiritual advice of Father Showalter.

"But I like it."

"Repent!"

Father Schonenberg, retreat master for the sophomores, juniors, and remaining seniors, creates vivid pictures of eternity.

The retreat master for the freshmen was Father Meany, who instructed them in problems particular to their age.

"And if you don't believe me, ask the seniors."

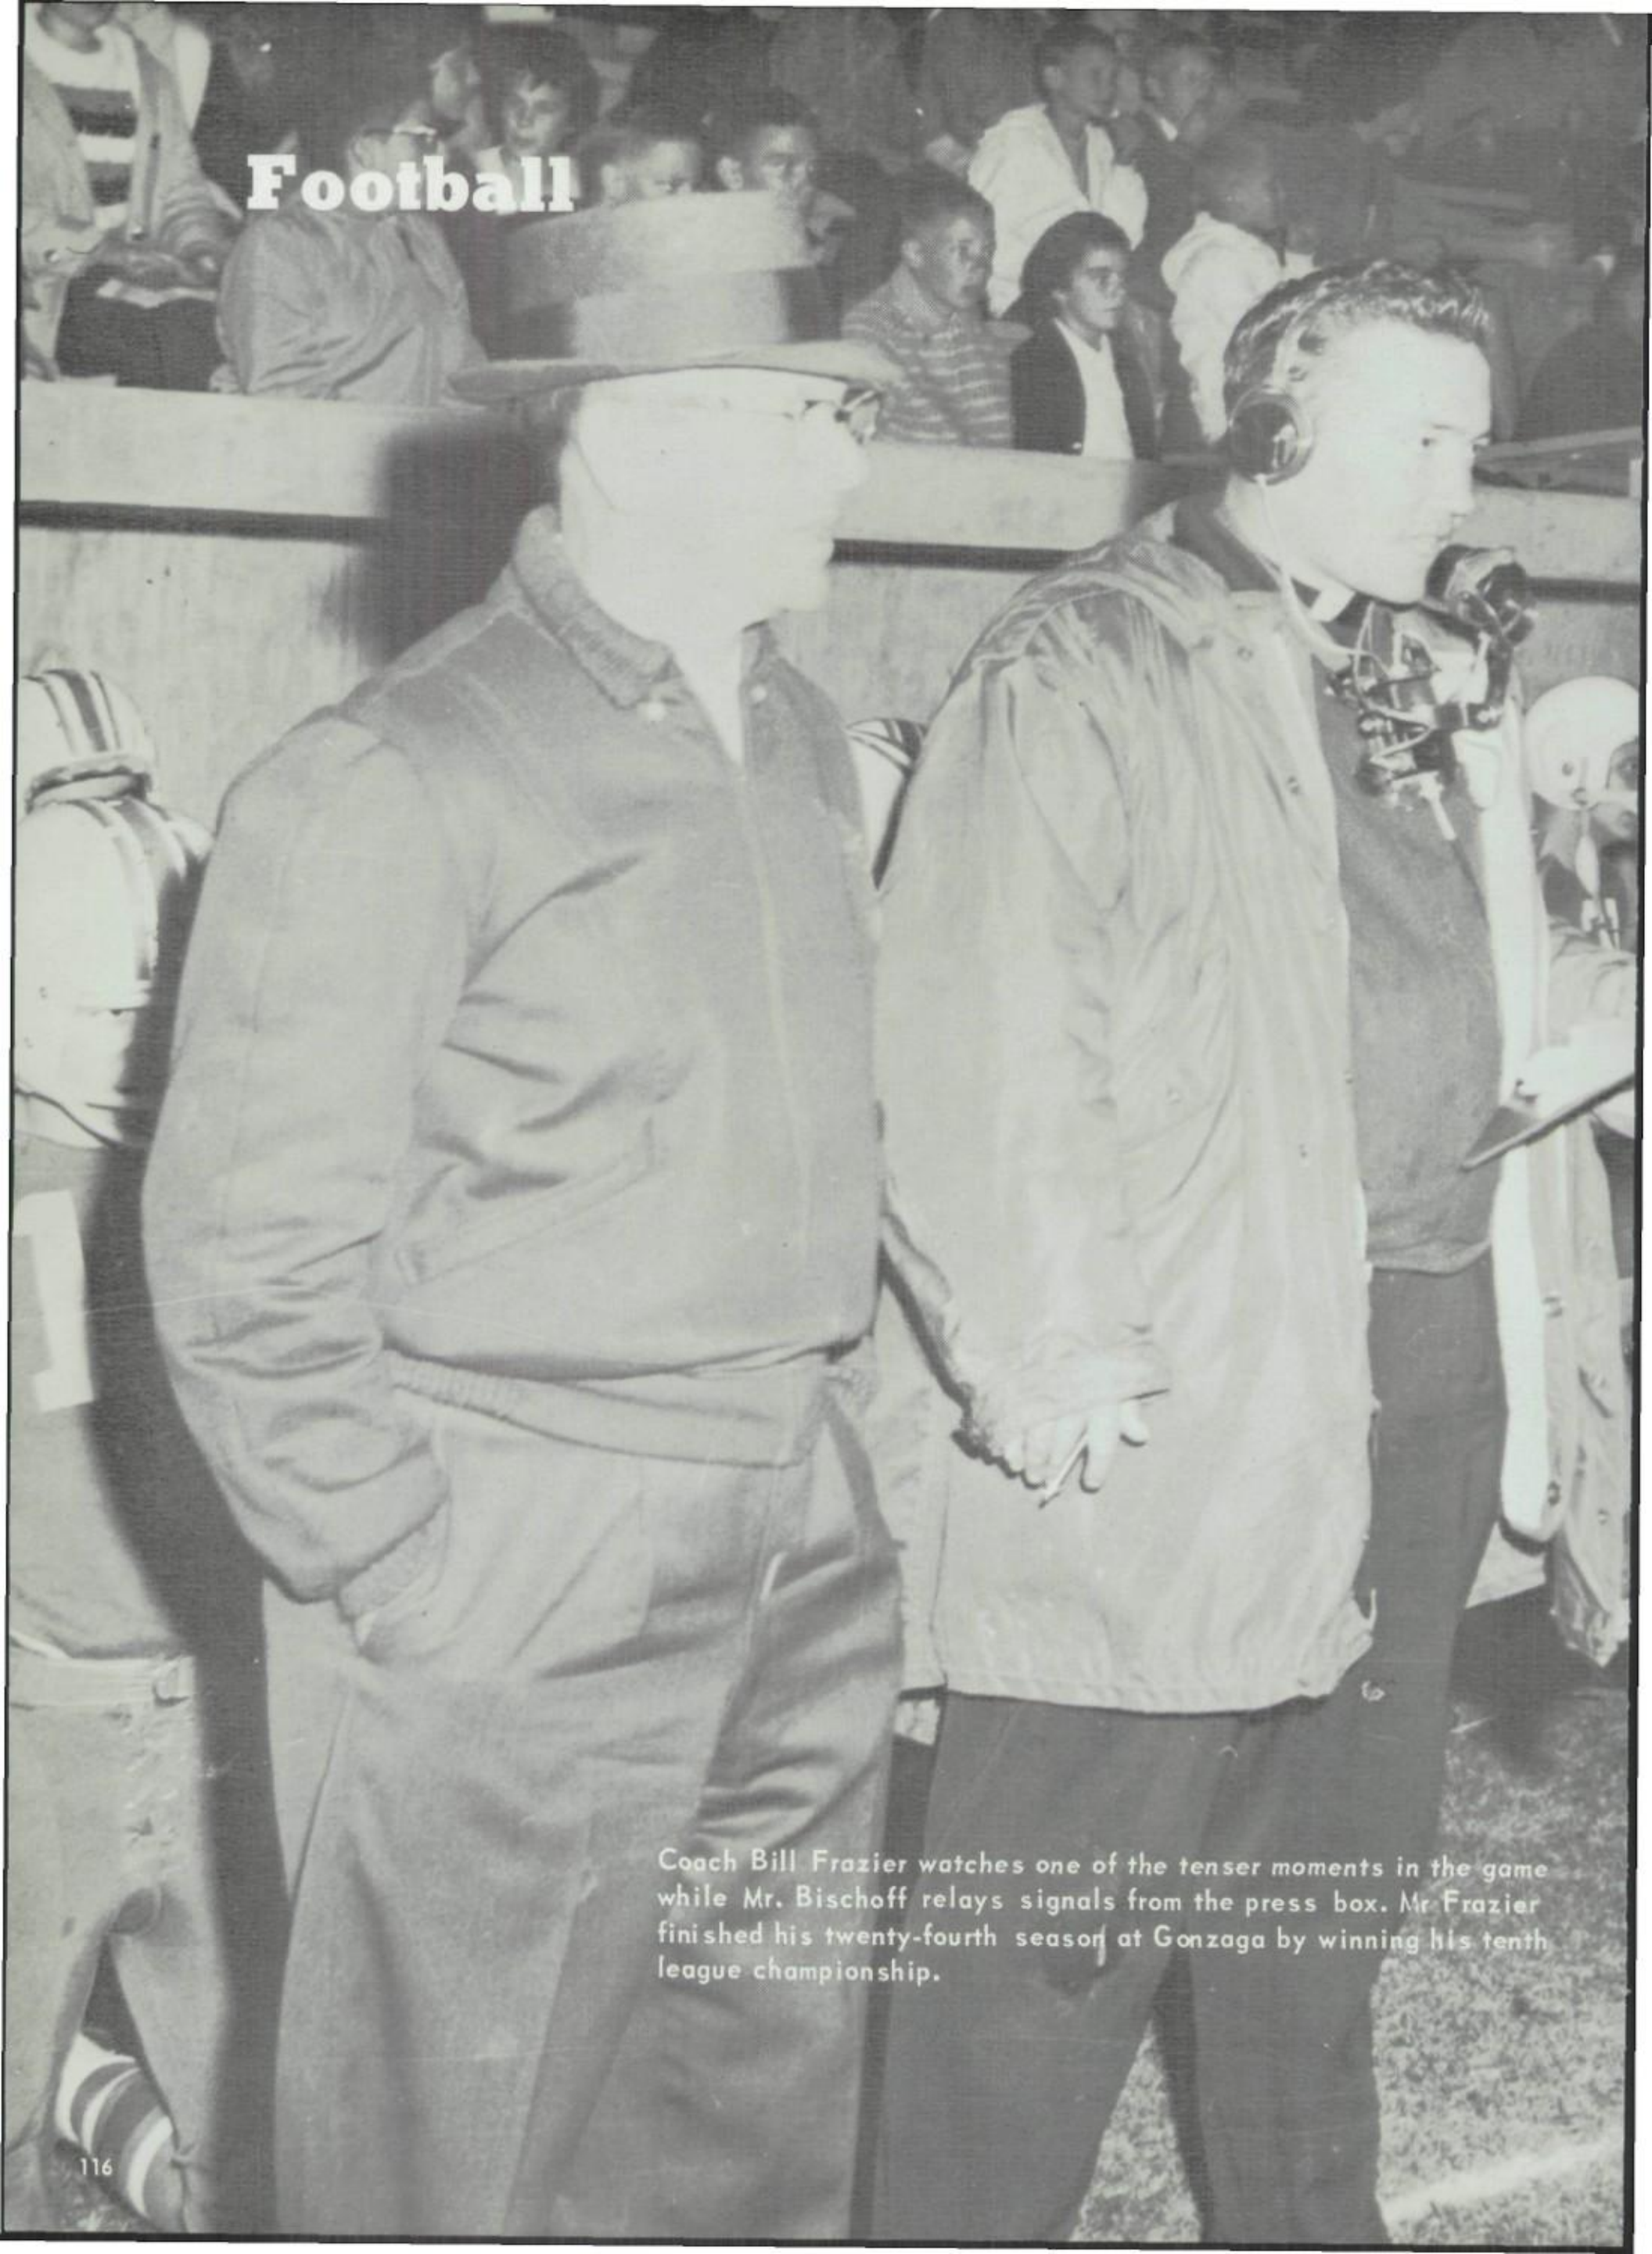
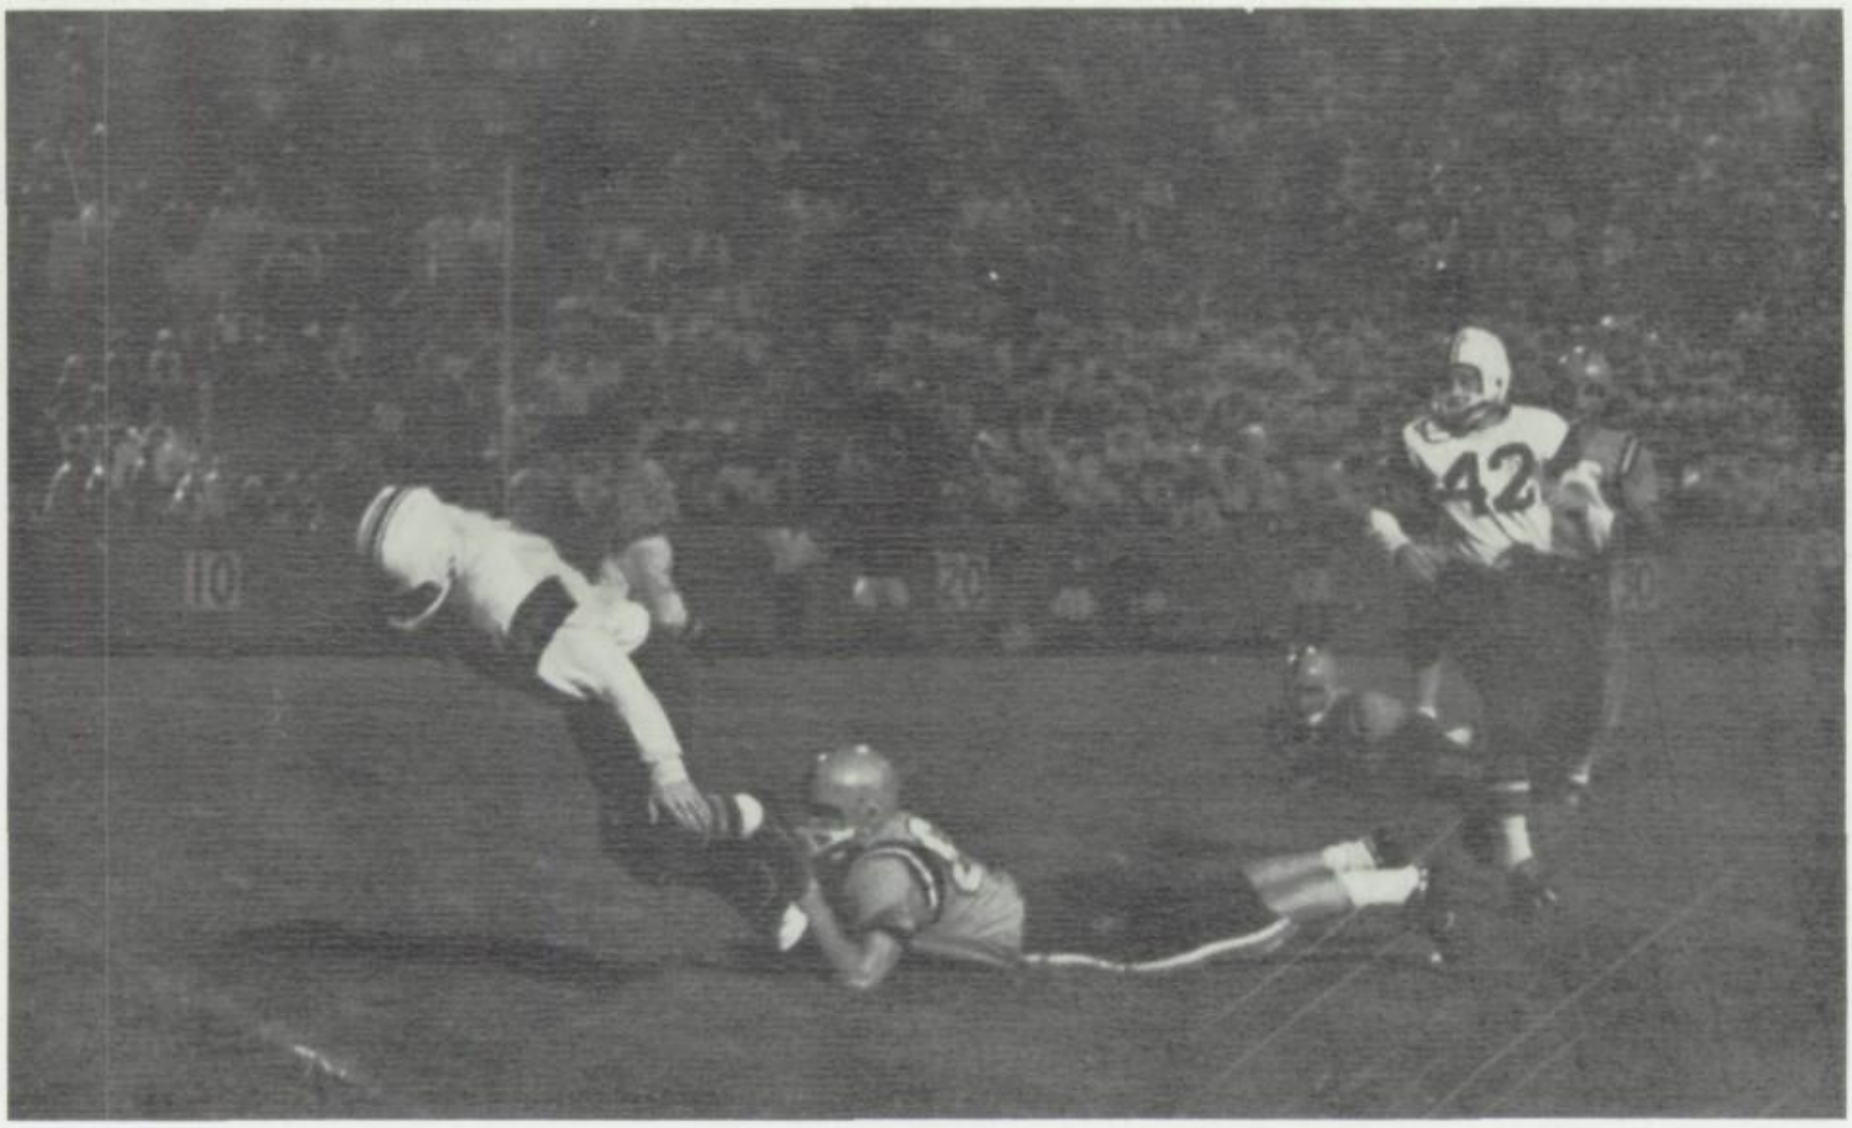
SPORTS

Football

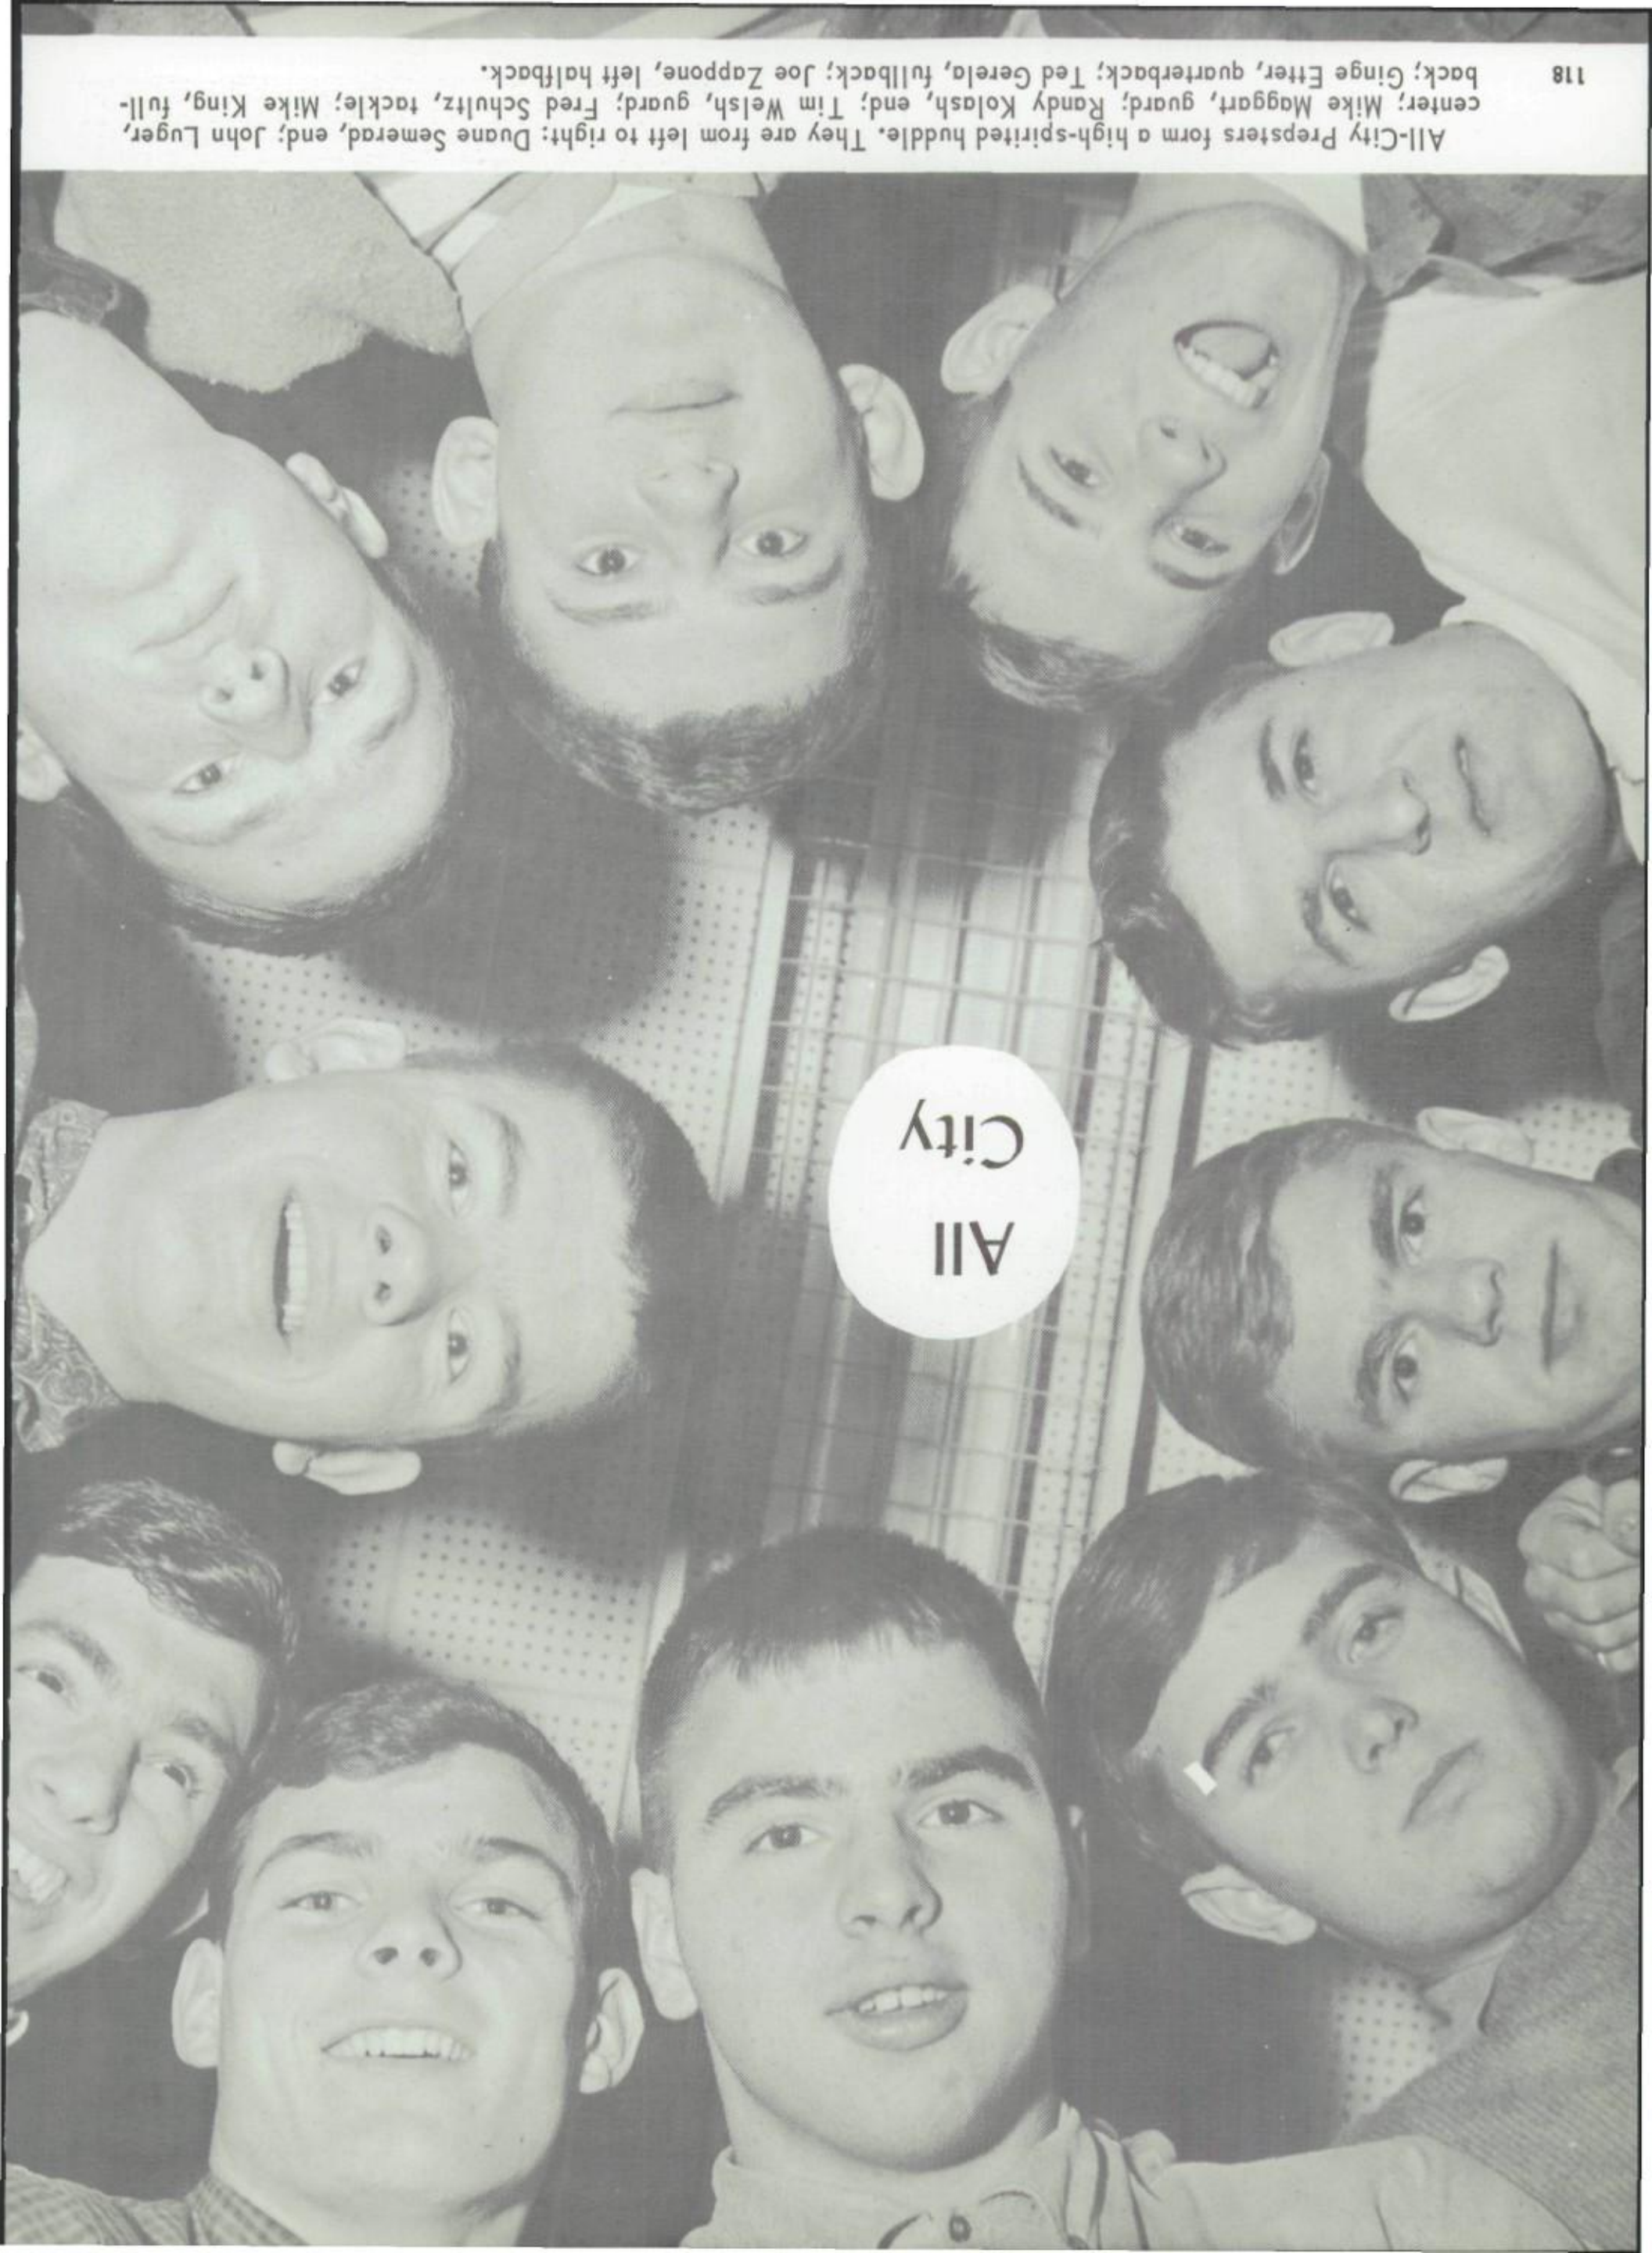


Coach Bill Frazier watches one of the tenser moments in the game while Mr. Bischoff relays signals from the press box. Mr Frazier finished his twenty-fourth season at Gonzaga by winning his tenth league championship.

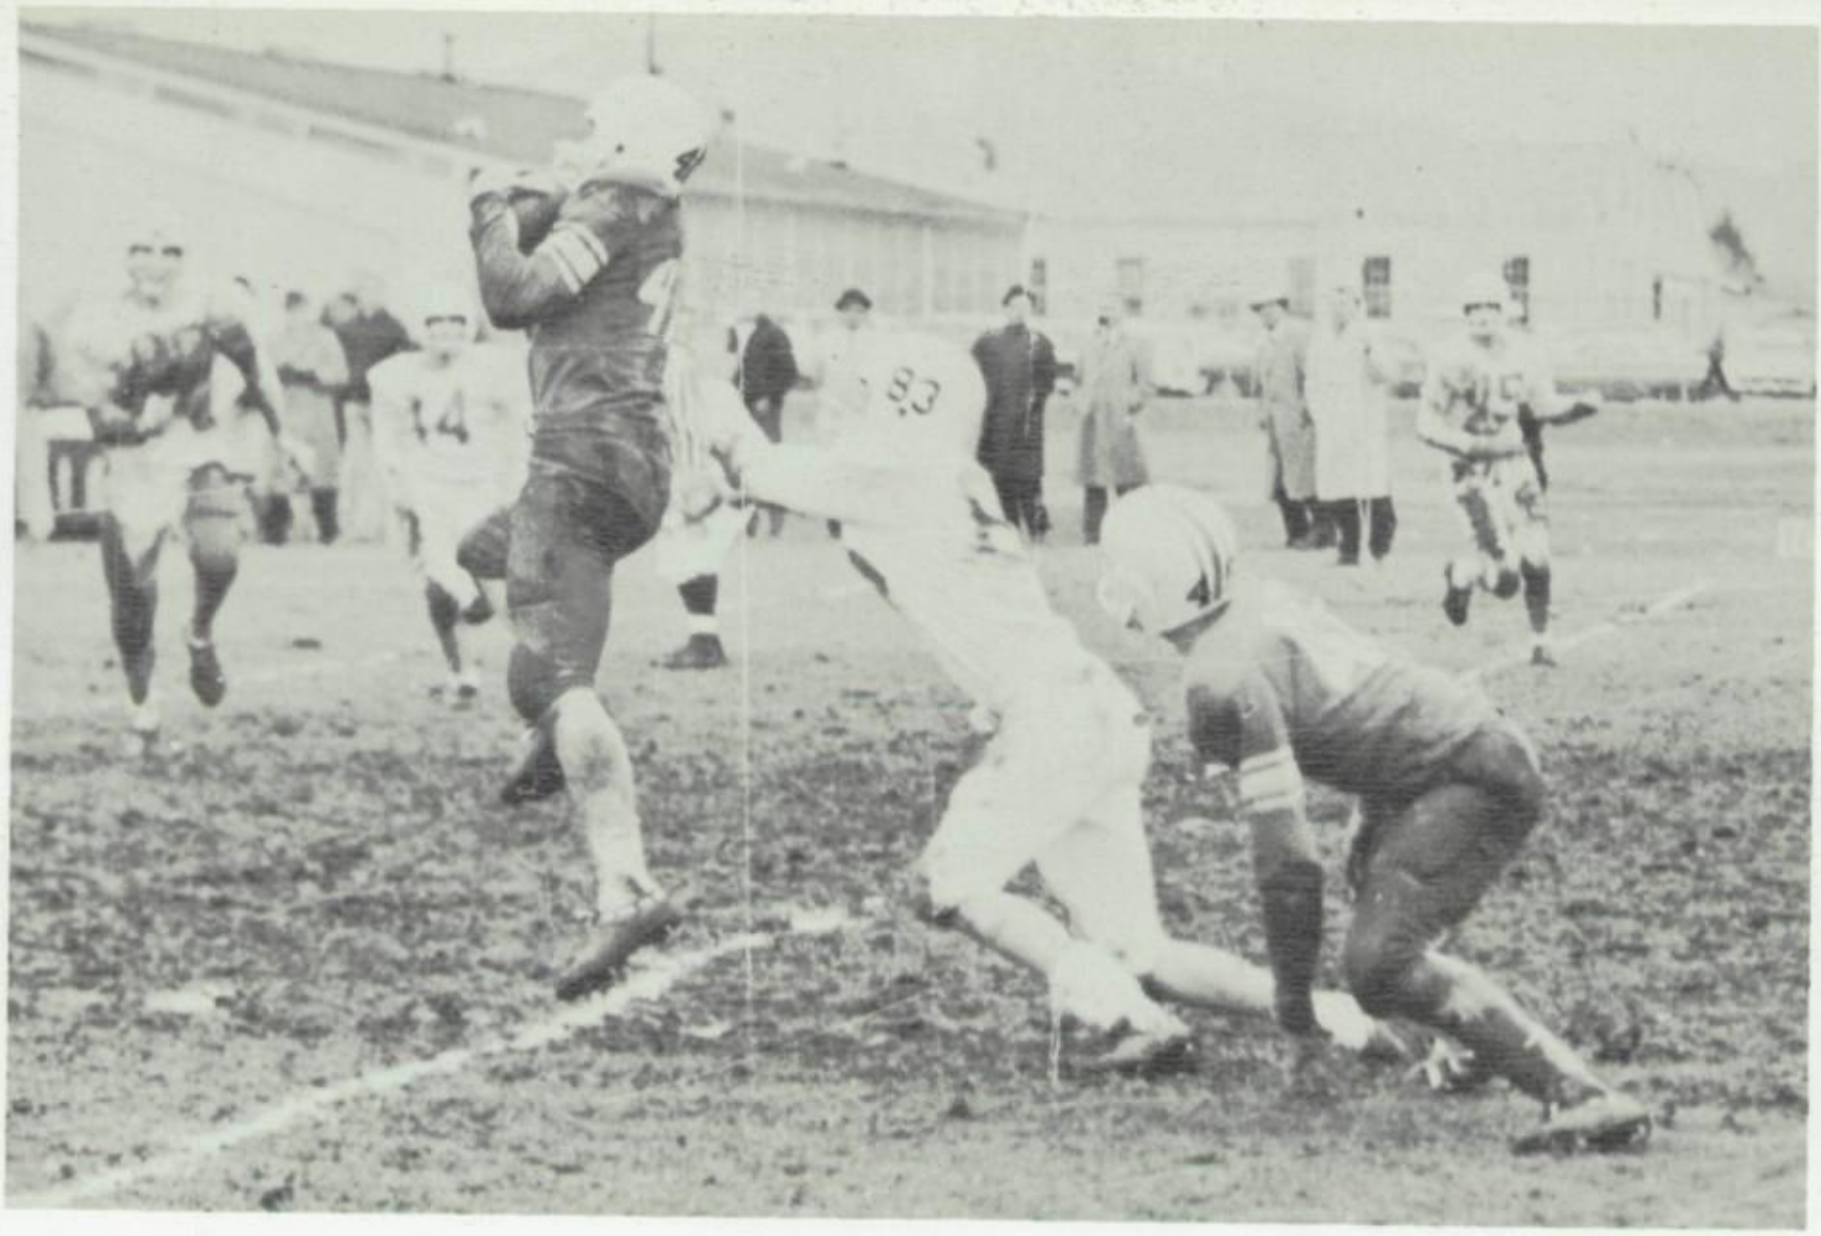


With a final lunge Greg Gaffaney plunges over the L. C. goal.

Bullpups run, tumble, and roll in pursuit of a renegade red-skin.



All-City Prepsters form a high-spirited huddle. They are from left to right: Duane Semerad, end; John Luger, center; Mike Maggart, guard; Randy Kolash, end; Tim Welsh, guard; Fred Schultz, tackle; Mike King, fullback; Ginge Etter, quarterback; Ted Gerela, fullback; Joe Zappone, left halfback.



Duane Semerad snatches an Etter-thrown pass for a Prep first down in the final game of the season.

"If you come any closer I'll stick my finger in your eye."

Bob Tully stretches to outdo his L. C. opponent.

First Row: manager Greg Frazier, Mike Martinson, Jim Northcott, Jim Elliott, Bob Tully, Dick McCarter, Rocky Kennedy, Joe

Jim Hill, Mr. Joe Waltner.

Coaches Mr. Casey S. J. and Joe Waltner admire Tim Welsh's "Most Inspirational Player" trophy. Tim was an All-City guard and led the team in tackles from his defensive end position.

Havens to Brigham: "Lance, you have a mosquito on your leg."

Where'd he go? Denny Freuen sneaks through the Central Valley defense for an easy bucket.

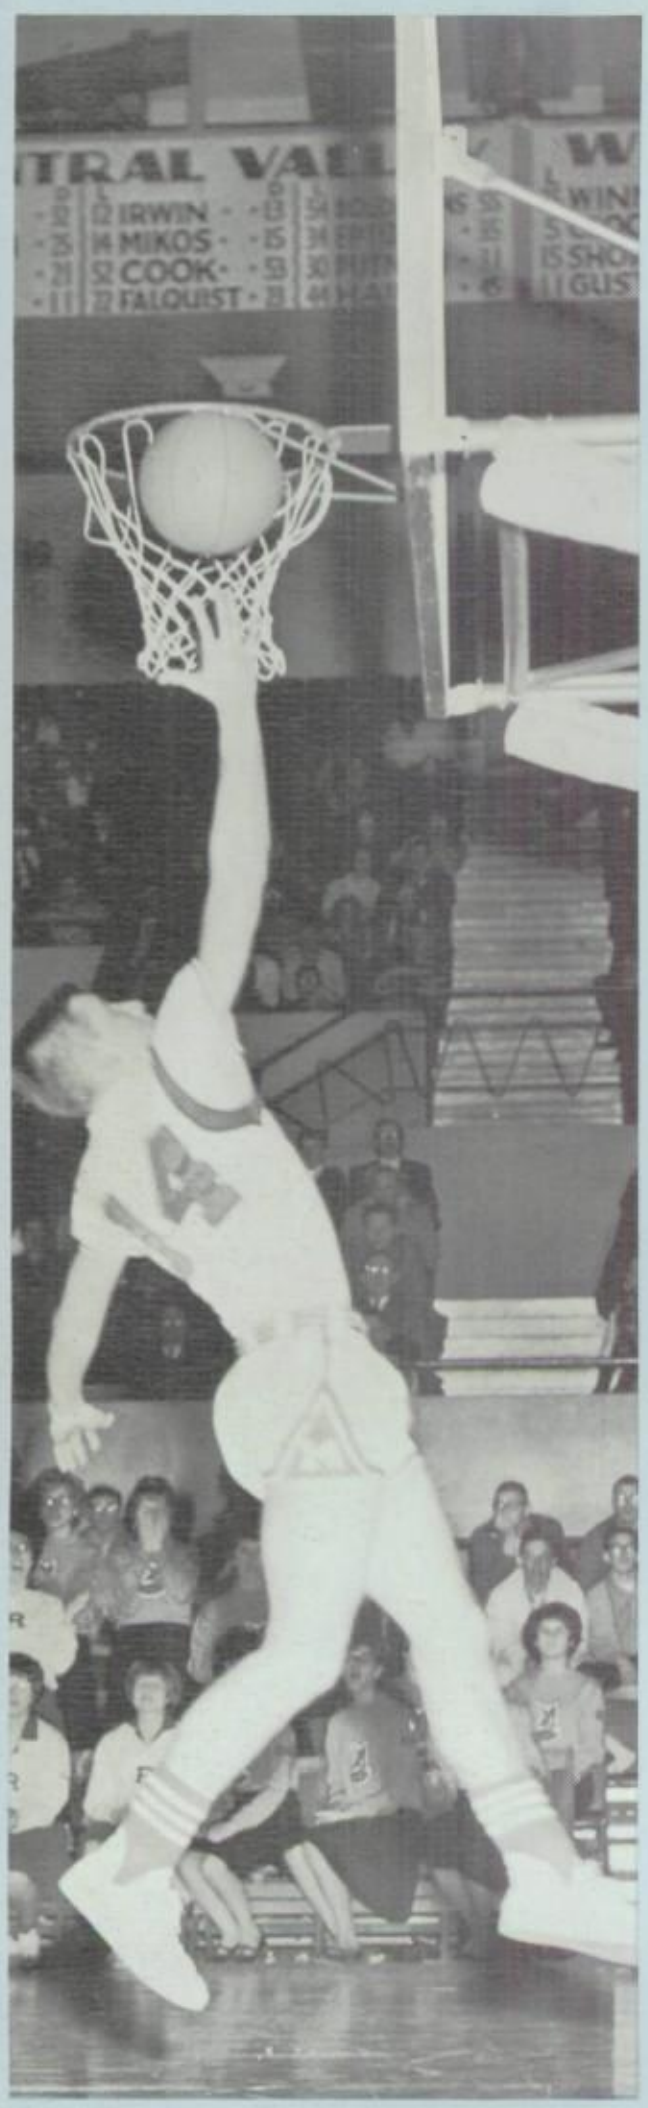
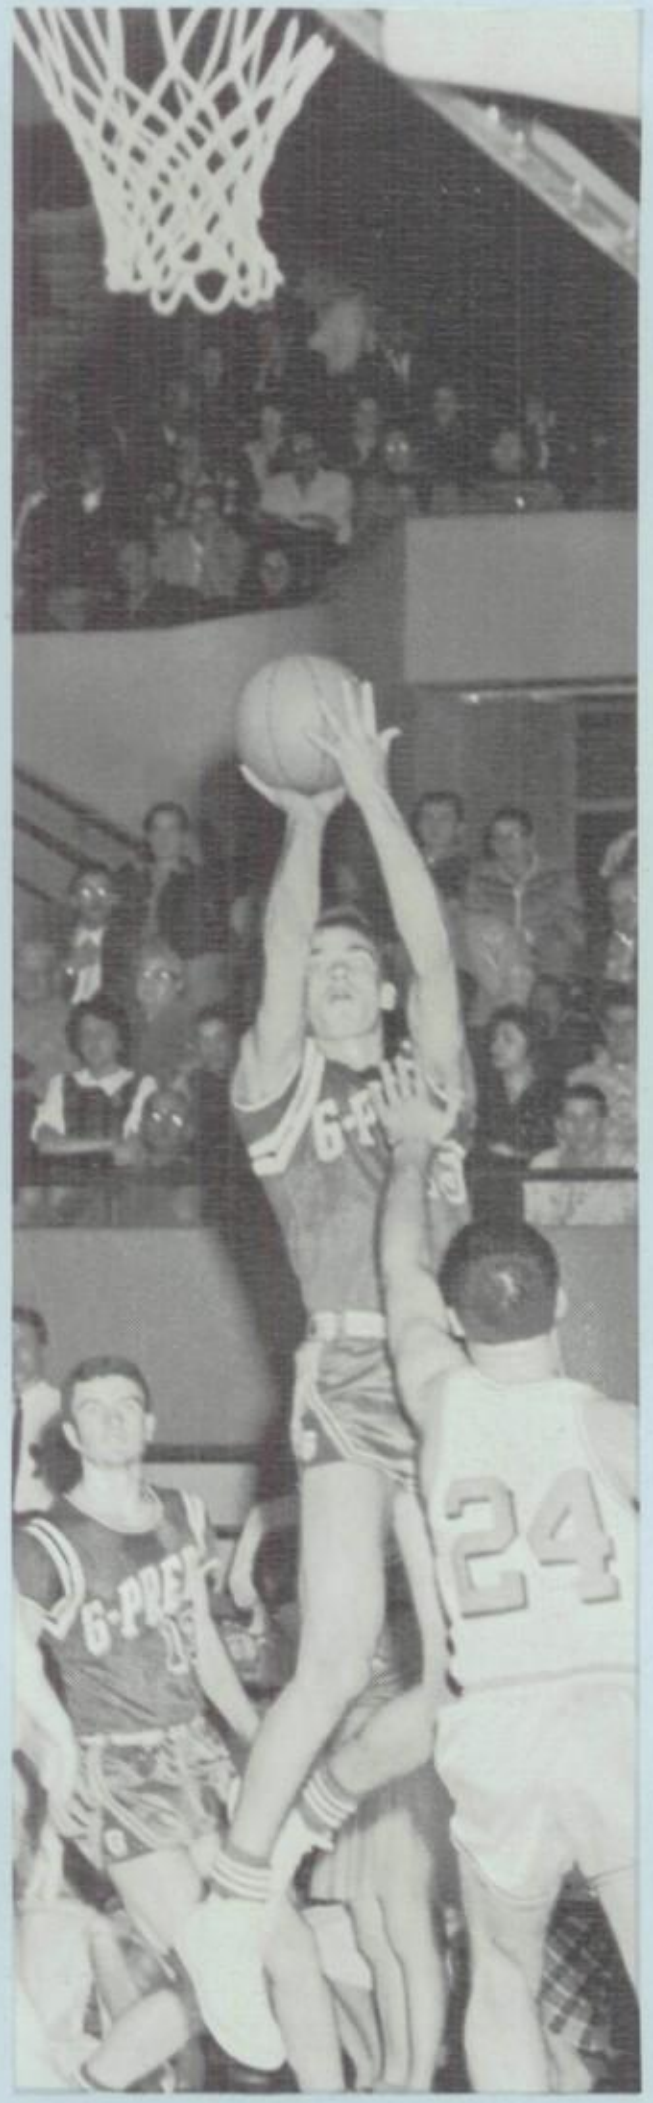
Tom Engel and Pat Freuen combine to check the efforts of an L. C. foe.



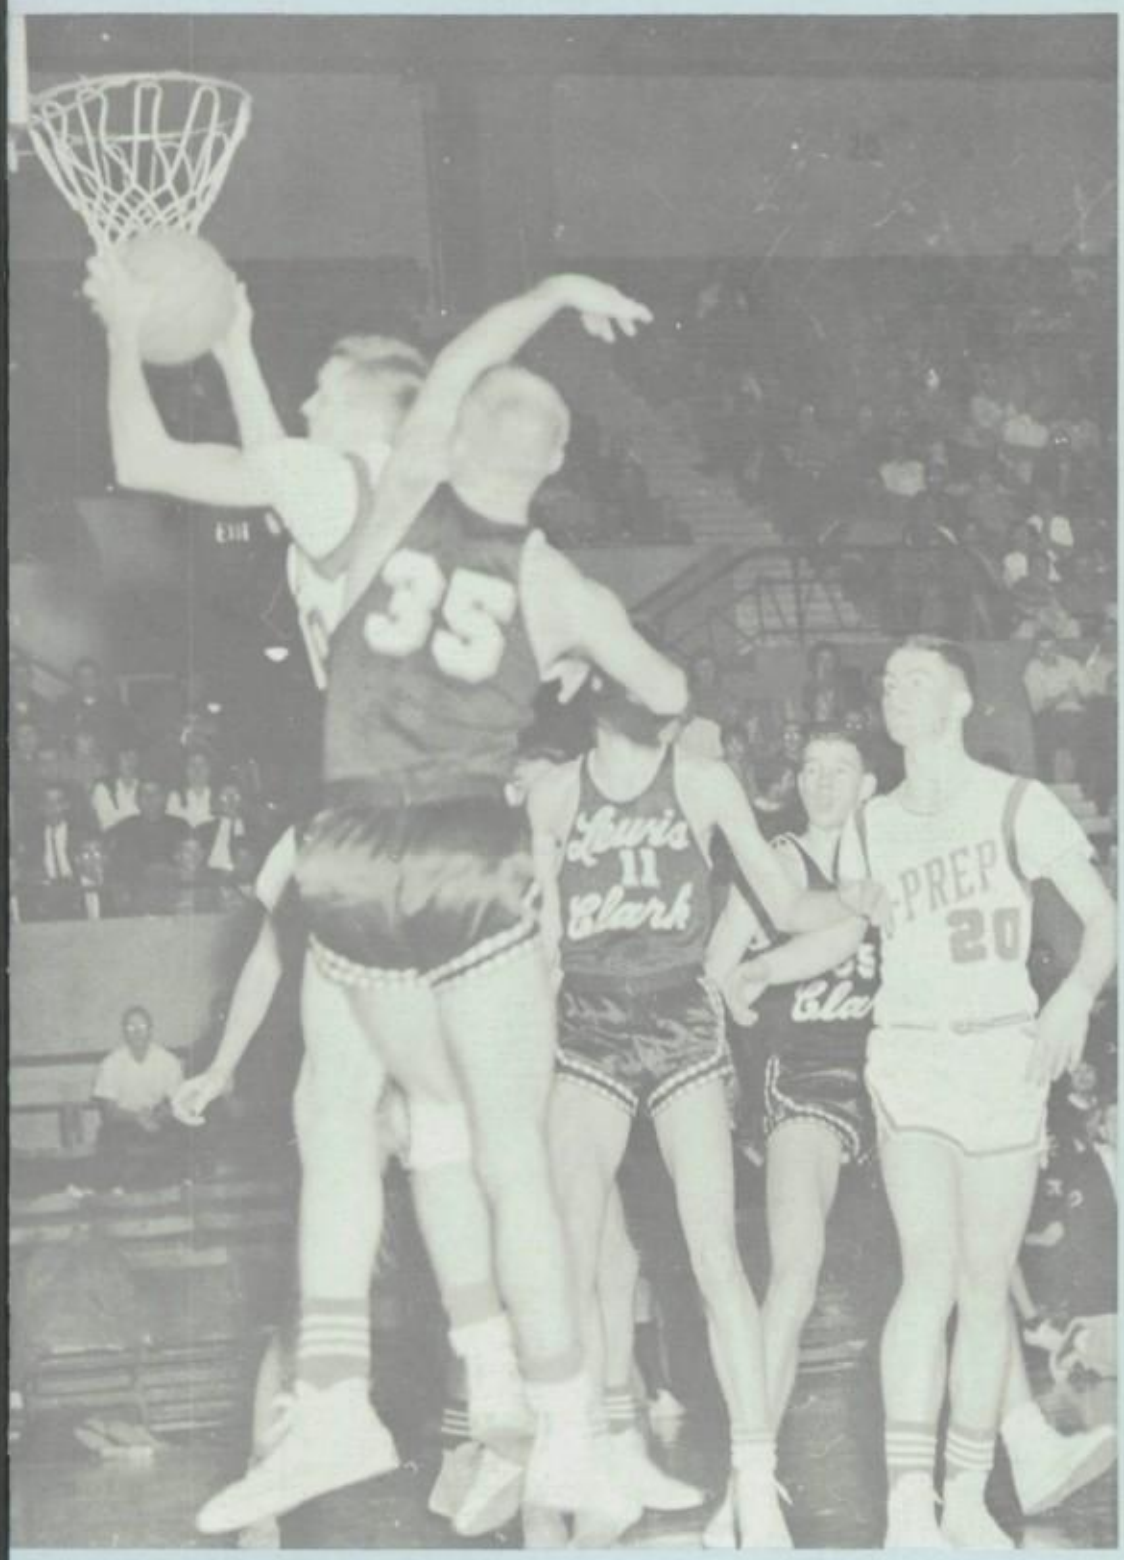
"Sully" glides in for a two-point landing.



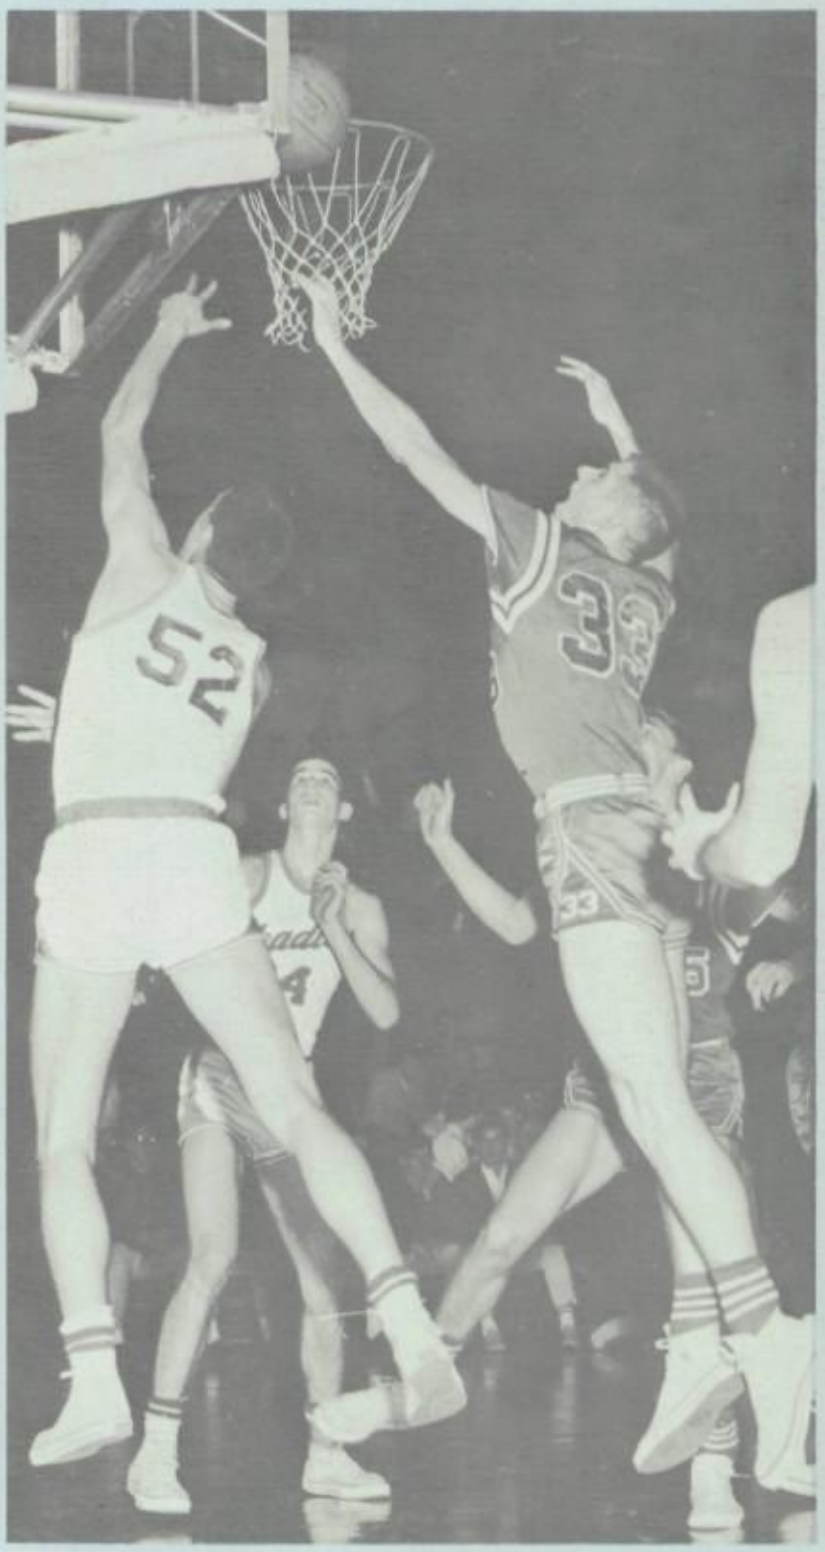
Etter makes it look easy. Ginge cans another of his spectacular shots.

"He soars through the air with the greatest of ease." Pat Davidson gets a cinch lay up.

The "Brass" of the squad watch the game intently. From the left; Brother Sullivan, Mike Flynn, Mr. Hausmann and Mr. Casey, assistant coaches, and Joe Schauble, head coach.



While Engel rebounds, Freuen holds hands.



Walt Havens blocks a Shadle players shot.
